Dear Dr. Robinson:

We regret to say that our copy of Israel Evans' oration delivered at Hackinsack, 10th September 1780, at the interment of Brigadier Enoch Poor was lost some years ago. The Union Catalogue at Washington could probably find another copy for you.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Dr. Robinson,

Your letter came as a surprise. I wrote you that Dr. C. P. Powell, Division of Manuscripts, Library of Congress, was interested in the cattle returns, and that I wrote you to communicate with him. Since no one could foresee the ultimate destination of the MSS. I offered to keep them in the vault of the Va State Library until it was determined whether they should go to L.C. or directly to you. They are in the vault, still. Please get in touch with Dr. Powell as soon as possible. I can not, of course, undertake any negotiations for them.

Sincerely yours

Gertrude R. B. Beahm
